A SPARKLING ODE TO IMAGINATION, GRANDMOTHERS, AND FINDING MAGIC IN UNLIKELY PLACES.

Nanna is taking Charlie for a Girls' Day Out. They'll have high tea, watch the ballet, smell flowers, and visit the Sydney Harbour Fairy. Charlie does not like the sound of a Girls' Day Out. And she especially hates fairies.

But the Harbour Fairy isn't what Charlie expected, and her Girls' Day Out with Nanna just got so much better.

ISBN: 978-1-922848-74-1
affirmpress.com.au

affirm press

THE SYDNEY HARBOUR FAIRY

DEBORAH FRENKEL & CATE JAMES

affirm press

THE SYDNEY HARBOUR FAIRY

Deborah Frenkel & Cate James

For dearly missed Grandma Liliane and joyfully treasured Nanna Nerrida.
Love is a kind of magic.
Deborah

For Marika, who likes sailing on Sydney Harbour a lot.
Cate

affirm press

First published by Af irm Press in 2022
Boon Wurrung Country
28 Thistlethwaite Street
South Melbourne VIC 3205
af irmpress.com.au

1 3 5 7 9 10 8 6 4 2

Text copyright © Deborah Frenkel, 2022
Illustrations copyright © Cate James, 2022
All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced without prior wr itten permission from the publisher.

A catalogue record for this book is available from the National Library of Australia

ISBN: 9781922848741 (hardback)

Cover design by Hannah Janzen © Af irm Press
Internal design by Hannah Janzen
Typeset in Andes by Hannah Janzen
Proudly printed and bound in China by RR Donnelley Asia Printing Solutions Ltd.

The Sydney Harbour FAIRY

Deborah Enkel & Cate James

affirm press

The Girls’ Day Out will be:
having tea,
smelling the flowers,

Charlie likes: pickles,

yodelling,

and making machines
out of toilet rolls and string.

On the way to the Girls' Day Out, Charlie invents a machine that could get a fairy right in the squishy part,
a bit like a mosquito.