

Today is NOT a good day.

Yes. The corners of my mouth turn up.

My cheeks are puffy and just
SOOOO cute!

My shiny little eyes are bright.

But looks can be deceiving.

I AM NOT HAPPY!
